Tic Tock! TIME IS RUNNING OUT S.O.S.: SAVE OUR SOULS

S.O.S.: SAVE OUR SOULS TIME IS RUNNING OUT, Rev. Jasper Williams will convene church leaders and leadership teams during an action-driven, three day, conference.

"This movement is about transforming the family to change the future."

Mission & History

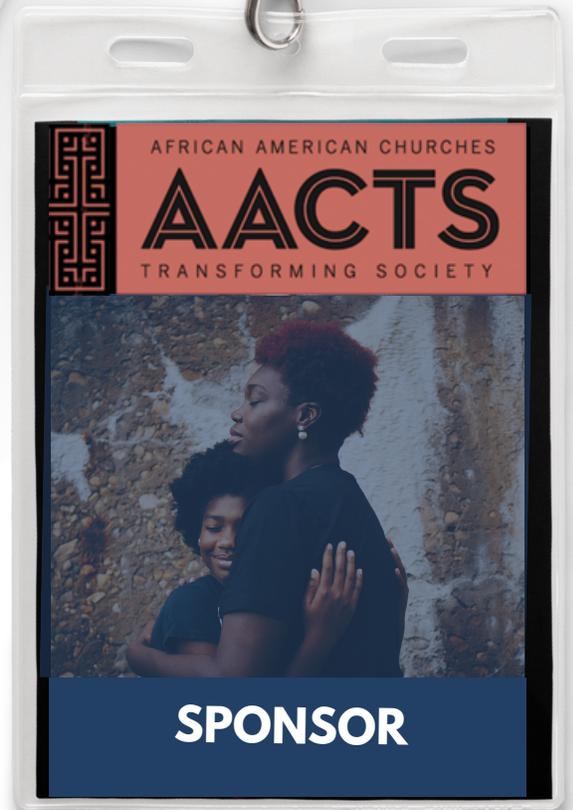

Presented by African American Churches Transforming Society: AACTS, The 2019 AACTS Conference seeks to educate the parents and reach the children to transform the society. AACTS is a collective of African American Churches working together to develop and expand initiatives, services, processes, programs and resources to help our communities and people thrive and prosper.

"Only a small percentage of churches embrace its responsibility to address the social ills of its people... It's time to take action!"

Call to Action

Out of the African American Church came our schools, businesses and social organizations. The African American Church, since integration, has mostly focused on one aspect of its mission (spiritual). Only a small percentage of churches embrace its responsibility to address the social ills of its people. It's time to come together to develop a plan of action to answer the distressed S.O.S. call coming from African American communities across this nation.
